A PLACE IN CALIFORNIA HISTORY
 With its nearly 100 years of practice in Southern California, Loeb & Loeb has been instrumental in the development of the Los Angeles community. Loeb & Loeb helped establish Los Angeles institutions such as the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and Union Bank of California. From the firm's legendary beginning to its current reputation, Loeb & Loeb continues to thrive at the forefront of entertainment, corporate, litigation, real estate, tax and trusts and estates law. From our offices in Los Angeles, New York, Chicago and Nashville, Loeb & Loeb serves an international client base.

FULL SERVICE FOR EVERY CLIENT
 During the firm's history, Loeb & Loeb has expanded and grown in response to client expectations. Among our many practice areas, we provide all our clients with direct access to counselors who serve a wide array of legal needs. In 2004, we welcomed former California Governor

Gray Davis to the firm as of counsel. In 2005, 15 partners joined core practice areas including corporate and securities, entertainment, bankruptcy and creditor's rights, intellectual property and securities litigation. Most recently, in March 2006, we acquired a team of nationally recognized trusts and estates lawyers.

John Frankenheimer, co-chair of Loeb & Loeb says, "Our planned and strategic growth enables us to deepen our long established reputation and involvement with economic and community leaders in Southern California and continue to provide the highest quality service to our clients."

TODAY'S YOUNG ATTORNEYS ARE TOMORROW'S LEADERS
 Loeb & Loeb believes in giving all attorneys the tools, training and support to succeed, a fact to which our 27 Southern California Rising Stars can attest. We have an extensive mentoring program that matches junior associates directly with partners who provide guidance and support. We believe in independence for our staff, yet balance that responsibility with support, ensuring a successful team of attorneys will always be in place to continue the firm's legacy. Loeb & Loeb is proud of its number one ranking in associate satisfaction in Los Angeles as reported by American Lawyer, October 2005.
